

Call for Volunteer Board Members

The Nepean, Rideau & Osgoode Community Resource Centre (NROCRC) is a much needed, well-used community service organization that helps vulnerable individuals and families lead better lives.

NROCRC is seeking passionate and dedicated individuals to join its volunteer Board of Directors. The ideal board member will have:

- A commitment to NROCRC's Mission, Vision and Values
- Strong communication skills
- A demonstrated ability to work in a team
- The ability to commit the time required as a member of the NROCRC Board of Directors (4-6 hours per month)

NROCRC is particularly interested in candidates with skill, knowledge and experience in some of the following areas:

- Finance in the non-profit sector
- Social Services
- Strategic Planning
- Advocacy
- Fundraising

Previous experience with a non-profit Board or community group is an asset.

If you are interested in serving one to three 3-year terms on our Board of Directors; please submit your resumé and a letter of interest by email to:

Sandy Wooley, Executive Director
NROCRC
swooley@nrocr.org

The NROCRC Board of Directors functions as trustees of the Corporation, including responsibility for financial management, policy development and strategic and long term planning.

For more information, contact:
Sandy Wooley, Executive Director
613.596-5626 x 223
swooley@nrocr.org

1547 Merivale Road, Unit 240 (Emerald Plaza) Nepean, ON K2G 4V3
Tel: 613.596.5626 Fax: 613.596.1870
Website: www.nrocr.org