

Volunteer to assist Mandarin and Cantonese people

The Somerset West Community Health Centre - Yet Keen Seniors' Day Centre is recruiting volunteers to assist Mandarin and Cantonese speaking seniors with medical appointments, including accompaniment and translation.

Yet Keen Seniors' Day Centre, a program of Somerset West Community Health Centre is an Ontario registered non-profit organization serving Chinese speaking seniors aged 60 and above in Ottawa for over 25 years. By providing social services and recreational activities in a homey environment, we help our members maintain their physical and social well-being, independence, self-support and self-care.

One of our services is to assist vulnerable seniors for medical appointments and volunteers are in need to provide this escort and/or interpretation service.
